2012 Old Vine Zinfandel

Teldeschi Vineyards – Home Ranch, Dry Creek Valley

Subtle aromas of ripe berry and spicy black pepper belie the richly textured flavors that follow. Balanced with an elegance derived from the ancient vines, this Zin offers layers and depth to the palate. A juicy core of blackberry and Bing cherry merge with mocha and hints of toasty oak, while pepper spices up the finish as the flavors linger.

The complement of flavors and ideal balance make this food-friendly wine easy to pair. Try it with sautéed Italian sausages and peppers over creamy polenta or a hearty lamb stew, and for dessert a delicious vanilla zabaglione with fresh berries.

2011 Cabernet Sauvignon

Teldeschi Vineyards – Home Ranch, Dry Creek Valley

Tempting aromas of ripe dark berries mingle with traces of forest floor, smoky oak and spice notes. The smooth entry and mouthfeel reveal a core of blackberry and dark cherry. Layered among the fruit you'll discover a dusting of dark cocoa, creamy oak and hints of leather, eucalyptus and cedar, with dried herbs joining in the finish.

Drinkable now, this Cab will pair well with a hearty meal or an appetizer course of baked Brie en crouete, stuffed sausage cups or bacon-wrapped stuffed dates. Also try it with a medium-rare New York strip, venison stew or grilled duck breasts drizzled with a blackberry reduction.
